

COFFEE DAY ENTERPRISES LIMITEDPOLICY ON DISCLOSURE OF MATERIAL EVENTS OR INFORMATION*I. Preamble

In alignment with Regulation 30 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India ("SEBI") (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (the "Listing Regulations"), every listed entity shall frame a policy for determination of materiality (this "Policy") based on criteria specified in the Listing Regulations. This Policy will be hosted on the website of the Company.

The Board of Directors of M/s. Coffee Day Enterprises Limited (the "Company"), at its meeting held on February 11th, 2016, approved this Policy with regard to disclosure of material events or information which are price sensitive and / or may have bearing on the performance or operation of the Company, thereby necessitating disclosure to the Stock Exchanges where the equity shares of the Company are listed. This Policy will be effective from February 11th, 2016.

II. Objective of this Policy

The objective of this Policy is to determine the event(s) and information(s) which, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, are considered material and need to be disclosed to the Stock Exchanges within the time limit as prescribed in this Policy, thereby ensuring a timely and balanced disclosure of all material matters concerning the Company.

This Policy provides guidelines to the Board of Directors of the Company and the Key Managerial Personnel as authorized by the Board of Directors to determine, identify and categorize events and information (which may materially affect the performance of the Company and, thereby, the share prices of the Company) as material and make necessary disclosure to the Stock Exchange(s) and on the website of the Company.

In terms of this Policy, the Company endeavors to ensure that it is able to meet its disclosure obligations under Regulation 30 of the Listing Regulations; and establish internal procedures to apprise officers of the Company of their obligations relating to systematic identification, categorization, review and disclosure of events or information which may have a material impact on the performance or operations of the Company and which may materially affect the share prices of the Company.

III. Administrative Measures for determining materiality:

The Company will make disclosure of event or information to the Stock Exchanges as specified by the SEBI from time to time. Materiality has to be determined on a case-by-case basis depending on specific facts and circumstances relating to the information or event. In order to determine whether a particular event or information is Material in nature, the Board will consider the following criteria for determination of materiality of events/information:

- a. The omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- b. The omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date;
- c. Any event/information that the Board of Directors of the Company consider as material where the impact of such event is Material

IV. Guidelines for determining materiality

The occurrence of an event or Information shall differ on a case to case basis and would depend on the stage of discussion, negotiation or approval. For example events like Issue of rights Shares can be said to have occurred on approval of the Board of Directors. Events like Declaration of Dividend would be deemed to have occurred when the dividend is approved by the Board of Directors and the Shareholders. However, considering the price sensitivity involved in events like declaration of dividends, etc. Disclosure shall be on the receipt of approval of Board of Directors, pending Shareholders approval.

For events & Information like natural calamities or disruptions, etc. which do not involve any discussion or approval, the date of occurrence would be the date when the Company becomes aware of such events or information or as soon as the Officer of the Company has ought to have reasonably come into possession of such information in the course of performance of his duties.
